

Results of active blacklegged tick surveillance*. Toronto, 2013 to 2018 data, combined.

Data as of December 14, 2018.
CDSU [iPHIS].
Spatial data: City of Toronto
[Enterprise Geospatial Repository – 2006 Census Region Boundary Files].
Prepared by: Communicable Disease Surveillance Unit, Toronto Public Health.

Locations where blacklegged ticks have been found

- Algonquin Island
- Anewen Greenbelt
- Cedar Ridge Park
- Charles Sauriol Conservation Area
- Colonel Danforth Trail
- Doris McCarthy Trail
- Guild Park and Gardens
- Highland Creek Park
- Humberwood Park
- Morningside Park
- Pine Point Park
- Rouge Park
- Rowntree Mills Park
- Sylvan Park
- Toronto Hunt Club
- Upper Rouge Trail Park
- Ward's Island

*Active tick surveillance is when public health staff collect ticks from their natural habitat through tick dragging.

TORONTO Public Health
Copyright © City of Toronto 2018.
All rights reserved.