

Scarlett Road Bridge Public Art

- Selected through an open call to artists
- Selection panel of art experts, including a programmer from local arts organisation Urban Arts
- Community feedback to artists included the importance of the railway history of the area
- Five artists selected to create proposals

Scarlett Road Bridge Public Art

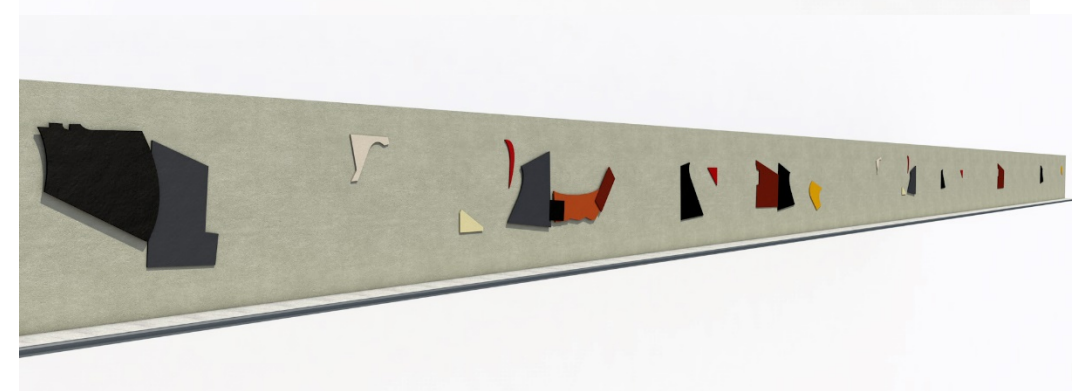

- Project by artist Georgia Dickie, “Here Yard”
- Abstraction from railway machinery invented in Toronto

Historical images of the Jordan Spreader

West retaining wall

East retaining wall

Scarlett Road Bridge Public Art

- Project by artist Georgia Dickie, “Here Yard”
- Abstraction from railway machinery invented in Toronto

Aerial view facing north east.