REPORT ON CONFERENCE

Employee Name: Pat Tobin
Division: Economic Development & Culture
Date Submitted: May 30, 2019

Name of Conference: Canadian Arts Summit 2019

Location: Montreal, Quebec, Canada
Date(s) Attended: April 11-April 13, 2019

Personal Development:

Attending the Canadian Arts Summit exposed me to leading thinkers and concepts in Canada on cultural development. I was able to learn about concepts that can be adapted and applied in Toronto's context.

Networking:

Participating in the Canadian Arts Summit provided great opportunity to learn and network with municipal cultural peers from all across Canada on issues relating to municipal cultural policy, space and grants. It also provided the opportunity to expand and deepen my network among arts leaders, especially public funders.

City Benefits (including financial benefits):

Attending the Canadian Arts Summit benefitted the City of Toronto in the following ways:

- Increased collaboration among municipal arts leaders
- Increased coherence in cities' cultural policy research agendas
- Advocacy for cities' needs in broad cultural policy discussions frequently dominated by the federal government
