IT’S IMPORTANT TO VACCINATE CHILDREN DURING COVID-19

Children need vaccines, on time if possible, for best protection.

Vaccine-preventable diseases are still spreading globally.

Once travel restrictions are eased, we may see an increase in disease spread.

Waiting to vaccinate can leave children vulnerable to disease.