Comments	identified in the Financial Impact section Toronto Police Services (TPS) had a towing yard in the Port Lands but the lease was terminated as the lands were conveyed to Waterfront Toronto to complete the flood protection work. A search of other lands in the area was conducted and there was no other location(s) available that could accommodate the zoning and ready for use. TPS needs lots downtown that are accessible by transit so people can pick up their impounded cars. The site is to be used temporarily for approximately one year in support of the City's Congestion Management Plan. The current tenant is leasing the site on a month-to-month basis and the tenant will received 30 days written notice to provide vacant possession.
