

WHAT IS HERD IMMUNITY?

Herd immunity protects our community from infection when many people are vaccinated.

It is another way to protect others by reducing COVID-19 spread.

It also protects people who can't get vaccinated like newborn babies.

Until we have herd immunity, we need to wear our mask & keep a distance from people we don't live with.