

BOOSTERS IMPROVE COMMUNITY IMMUNITY & REDUCE VIRUS SPREAD

Vaccines are the best way for communities to have longer lasting immunity & reduce the spread of variants

A booster dose is effective to prevent getting & spreading variants 2 weeks after vaccination

When a lot of people stay up to date with boosters, we reduce the spread of variants by increasing Community Immunity

Vaccinations reduce the risk of getting seriously sick from COVID-19