What we do

The Office of the Mayor provides support to the Mayor as the Head of Council and the Chief Executive Officer of the City, as prescribed in the City of Toronto Act, 2006, s. 133 and s. 134.

Why we do it

In accordance with the City of Toronto Act, 2006 (s. 133), it is the role of the Mayor, as Head of City Council,

- To act as the Chief Executive Officer of the City;
- To preside over Council meetings so that City business can be carried out efficiently and effectively;
- To provide leadership to Council;
- To represent the City and Council at official functions; and
- To carry out duties as Head of Council under the Act and under any other legislation.

The Mayor's role also includes providing information and making recommendations to Council with respect to Council's role in sections 131(d) and (e) on the City of Toronto Act. These include:

- (d) to ensure that administrative policies, practices and procedures and controllership policies, practices and procedures are in place to implement the decision of Council;
- (e) to ensure the accountability and transparency of the operations of the City, including the activities of the senior management of the City.

In addition, as Chief Executive Officer of the City (s. 134), the Mayor shall:

- (a) uphold and promote the purposes of the City;
  - (b) promote public involvement in the City's activities;
  - (c) act as the representative of the City both within and outside the City, and promote the City locally, nationally and internationally; and
  - (d) participate in and foster activities that enhance the economic, social and environmental well-being of the City and its residents.
