Short-term Rental Company (STR) Business Licence Information and Application.

Overview

This document contains information for a sole-proprietor, partnership, or corporation to apply for a Short-Term Rental Company Business Licence in the City of Toronto.

A Short-Term Rental Company is any person in the business of facilitating or brokering bookings for short term rentals via the internet who: receives payment, compensation, or any other financial benefit as a result of a person making or completing bookings of those short-term rentals; or who collects, accesses, or holds information on the number of nights that bookings of those short-term rentals are made or completed.

Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 547, Short-Term Rentals, regulates Short-Term Rental Companies and operators in Toronto. As per this bylaw, Short-Term Rental Companies are required to be licensed to operate in Toronto. For more information, <https://www.toronto.ca/shorttermrentals>. Chapter 547 is available online: <https://www.toronto.ca/legdocs/bylaws/2018/law0613.pdf>

SHORT-TERM RENTAL (STR) Business Licence

Application Instructions

Sole-proprietors, Partnerships, or Corporations can apply for a Short-Term Rental (STR) Business Licence.

To apply, please provide this completed form and application submission checklist, and the following required documents.

Completed applications are submitted electronically and fees will be paid online.

If you are interested in operating a short-term rental in your home on a company platform, contact that STR Company directly.

Step 1a: Prepare Documents

Prepare an application by obtaining required documents and completing required forms.

All Applicants

The following documents and completed forms must be provided:

- STR Application Form 1
- A signed STR Data Sharing Agreement. It provides data sharing instructions and clarifies the role of the STR and the City in collecting, maintaining and sharing data as required.
- A completed Security Questionnaire
- Original Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check issued by a Canadian Police Service within 280 days prior to the application.
- Online payment of the applicable fee of $5000 CAD, applicants will be provided with an invoice number after submission and review of a complete application package. All 2020 Municipal Licensing and Standards (ML&S) fees are listed on www.toronto.ca/mlsfees.
- Two pieces of government issued Identification (ID) for all officers, directors and partners of the applicant partnership or company. At least one must be a valid photo ID. Acceptable ID include:
 - Birth Certificate
 - Passport or Citizenship Card
 - Permanent Resident Card
 - Work Permit
 - Driver's Licence
 - Photo Identification Card

Note: First and last names must match on all identification provided to the City. The City does not accept Health Cards as a form of identification.

SHORT-TERM RENTAL (STR) Business Licence

Step 1b: Prepare Additional Document Requirements

Sole-Proprietor or Partnership

- Form 2 listing the first 2 officers of the applicant and a description of the legal relationship between multiple partners or companies if they act together to operate as a STR Company.
- Ontario business location / address of a representative that can legally accept communications.

For Partnerships only:

- A copy of the Partnership Agreement.

Corporation

- Form 2 listing the first 2 officers of the applicant and a description of the legal relationship between multiple companies if they act together as a STR Company.
- A copy of Articles of Incorporation and, if there has been a change to the list of officers and directors, a current Corporate Profile Report.
- Ontario business location / address of a representative that can legally accept communications.

If no president, director or officer of the corporation is able to apply, a designate may apply on its behalf. In addition to the items identified above, the delegate must also provide:

- A letter advising of their signing authority on the corporation letterhead
- Two pieces of their own government issued ID
- Criminal Record & Judicial Matters Check for each officer and director of the corporation.

Copies of government issued ID for each person listed on the STR Company Form 2 do not need to be notarized.

Step 1c: Submit Application

Please note that incomplete applications will not be processed.

Once your application is ready, please email mlsbusinesslicence@toronto.ca using business email account, for instructions to submit it via a secure file transfer process.

Once your complete application is received, a member of our staff will review your forms and the required documents, along with sending an invoice number for fee payment.

At the end of Step 1, the applicant will receive:

- An invoice number for application fee payment
- A copy of the application submission
- An application number and client number
- Additional information for the STR Company Data Sharing Agreement

SHORT-TERM RENTAL (STR) Business Licence

Step 2: Participate in STR Company Data Sharing Test Phase

The Data Sharing Agreement will describe the types of data and personal information that may be exchanged between a Short-Term Rental Company and the City under the Toronto Municipal Code (in this case, Chapters 547 and 758, with respect to licensing / registration, the data is to enable compliance and enforcement of the STR rules and tax remittance) and to set out requirements with respect to the transfer, storage, and protection of that data.

Prior to approving a licence application from a STR Company, the City will work with STR Companies to complete data exchange testing and ensure processes conform with the requirements of the Data Sharing Agreement.

Step 3: Issue STR Licence

Once the STR Company successfully passes the data sharing test phase, the City may issue a STR Business Licence.

At the end of Step 3, the applicant will receive:

- A hard copy of your STR Business Licence.
