

COVID-19 VACCINE & FERTILITY

Billions of people worldwide have received the vaccines with no fertility concerns identified

Research shows no impact on fertility (including no effect on sperm)

The vaccine activates the immune system and does not impact the reproductive system or organs

Health Canada monitors research and reports of adverse events worldwide for vaccine safety