

Who is Eligible

Eligible religious, charitable and non-profit organizations may be licensed to conduct lotteries in Toronto.

An organization may be eligible if it:

- Has been in existence for at least one year
- Has provided charitable community services with goals and activities that are consistent with the mandate of the organization for at least one year in Toronto
- Proposes to use the proceeds for charitable programs and services that directly benefit Toronto and its residents
- Assumes full responsibility for the conduct and management of its event

An individual is not eligible for a lottery licence.

Instructions

Applying for a lottery licence is a TWO STEP process if your organization has not been licensed by the City in the past two years:

Step 1 – Applying for an Eligibility Review

To apply for an eligibility review, an organization must submit to Gaming Services:

- Lottery Licensing Eligibility Review Application
- Organization's constitution and/or by-laws, signed and dated
- Letters Patent, if applicable
- List of current Board of Directors showing name, position in the organization, address, phone number and email address
- Membership list, if applicable
- Brochures, pamphlets and any other background information describing programs and services delivered by the organization
- Revenue Canada Notification of Charitable Designation, if applicable
- Most recent documents filed with Revenue Canada (T3010), if the organization is registered as a charity under the Charities Accounting Act or Income Tax Act
- Operating budget for the current year and past year, including all sources of revenue and expenses
- Most recent annual signed financial statement
- Eligibility review fee of $26 (HST not applicable)
 - Payment by cheque (payable to "Treasurer, City of Toronto")
 - Personal cheques and cash are not accepted

Incomplete applications will be returned to the applicant.

Gaming Services will review your application and notify you in writing of your organization's eligibility to conduct a lottery. An eligibility review usually takes 30 business days to complete.

Step 2 – Applying for a Lottery Licence

To apply for a lottery licence, an organization must submit to Gaming Services:

- Application to manage and conduct the lottery and supporting documentation
- Lottery licensing fee
