

What You Need to Know

An organization may apply for a break open ticket lottery if it is a charitable, non-profit and/or religious organization. An individual is not eligible for a lottery licence.

If your organization has not been licensed by the City in the past 2 years, you must apply for an eligibility review before applying for a lottery licence.

The City licenses break open ticket lotteries sold at legion halls, hospitals and variety stores.

For break open ticket lotteries in conjunction with other lottery events, contact the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario at 416-326-8700 or visit www.agco.on.ca

Instructions

1. Review the Break Open Ticket Licence Terms and Conditions
2. Submit to Gaming Services:
  - Completed Application to Manage and Conduct a Break Open Ticket Lottery
  - Copy of valid Gaming Control Act Registration Certificate (GCA)
  - Copy of three-way contract between the gaming service supplier, third party location, and non-profit charitable and/or religious organization
  - Financial information (an organization must have a lottery trust account as a condition of a lottery licence)
    - Name and address of bank or financial institution
    - Trust account number
  - Lottery licensing fee
  - Complete contact information on the back of this form and return with application

Incomplete application packages will be returned to the applicant.

Gaming Services will process your application and issue your licence, within 15 business days.

Need to Amend Your Break Open Ticket Lottery Licence

If your organization sells all the boxes on your licence before the licence expires, you can add boxes to your current licence OR apply for a new licence. A lottery licensing or administration fee will apply.

If you do not sell all the boxes on your licence before the licence expires, you can request to extend the licence for up to one year (two years in total). A lottery licensing fee will apply.

Requests for amendments must be received at least 10 business days prior to the expiry of the licence.

The request is processed within 15 business days.
