On two separate instances in the same week, Jewish Torontonians have been accosted and assaulted in local public parks.

According to the victims, while minding their own business and enjoying a beautiful day in the park on Tuesday they were approached by an aggressive man brandishing antisemitic hate symbols. The victims report that the man began pointedly inquir-

Days later, a similar scene played out once again. Jewish Torontonians were the targets of an antisemitic tirade by an aggressive individual.

In this instance, the accused reportedly advanced upon a small group of Jewish Torontonians, resulting in a physical struggle. According to witnesses, one victim was thrown to the ground and punched repeatedly.

These dangerous scenes are the latest in what city officials are calling a "disturbing spike" in antisemitic hate crimes and assaults across Toronto. Despite being less than 4% of Toronto's popula-
