Contributors Can Now Claim Contribution Rebates Online

Toronto Elections has launched an online form through which contributors to candidates participating in the City's Contribution Rebate Program can claim their rebate.

Participating candidates are still required to send a signed Rebate Receipt & Application Form to their contributors, as they will need the information on that form to claim their rebate. Please note that you cannot claim rebates on behalf of your contributors.

Contributors who do not wish to use the online form can still mail in their completed physical form to 89 Northline Road, Toronto, ON M4G 3G1.

ArcGIS Mapping Information for Voting Locations and Subdivisions

Toronto Elections has released the ArcGIS Server Services. Both voting location point data and voting subdivision polygons are available for use.

Please note that all data provided is subject to change up to and including election day, and that ArcGIS pages should be checked regularly for new info. No technical support will be provided to candidates for these services.

Canvassing on Voting Days

You may campaign on voting days, subject to the following rules and restrictions:

- You cannot campaign anywhere on the property that is part of a facility where the voting place is located (e.g. parking lots, walkways leading to the voting place, front lawn, anywhere inside the building, etc).
- In condos or apartments with an on-site voting place, you cannot campaign in common areas in the building (e.g., lobby or elevators).
 - You can canvass on residential floors, except near the where the voting place is located.

Please note that election signs cannot be posted adjacent to any voting place.

Scrutineers

During voting days, you and/or your scrutineer(s) can be present at a voting place to observe the voting process.

If you are entering a voting location to observe voting, you must identify yourself as a candidate to staff upon entering, present ID, and take a declaration. Scrutineers that you appoint must present a Scrutineer Appointment Notice and take a declaration. You can appoint one scrutineer for each ballot officer and vote tabulator in a voting location.

Both you and your scrutineers are required to follow the rules outlined on the Appointment Notice. If your maximum number of scrutineers are present in a voting location and you also enter, one of your scrutineers is required to leave.
