Grounds for Complaint

The Code of Conduct has rules that prohibit certain types of conduct. For purposes of your complaint, please indicate which rules you believe the adjudicative board member you are complaining about has broken.

Please check the boxes for any rule(s) below that apply in your complaint:

They received a gift and/or benefit that is not allowed (Article 4).

They improperly disclosed confidential information (Article 5).

They have communicated with parties about a current proceeding in a way that is not permitted by their adjudicative board's rules of procedure (Article 6).

They have communicated with the media although they are not the Chair of their board or its designated media contact (Article 7).

They have used City or board property, services or other resources for something other than City business or their official duties (Article 8).

They used City or board property, services or other resources for an election campaign (Article 9).

They were involved in a matter where they have a real or apparent conflict of interest or have used their influence for a purpose other than their official duties (Article 10).

They have acted directly or indirectly as a paid agent or provided goods, consulting or other services to their adjudicative board (Article 11).

They hold an executive position in an organization whose mandates and objectives are in conflict with or may reasonably be presumed to be in conflict with their board's mandates and objectives (Article 11).

The prospect of future employment has detrimentally affected the performance of their duties (Article 12).

They have failed to act with decorum at their board's meetings (Article 13).

They have injured the professional or ethical reputation of City and/or board staff ("staff"), unduly interfered with the work of staff, compelled staff to engage in partisan activity, or failed to respect the role of staff (Article 14).

They have knowingly communicated with lobbyists in relation to matters before their adjudicative board or have failed to report someone breaching the lobbying bylaw (Article 15).

While acting as Chair of the Board or Panel, they have failed to deal with the conduct of another member or staff attending the meeting that was inconsistent with the arm's-length, quasi-judicial nature as an adjudicative tribunal (Article 16).

They have asked a member of Council for advice about a proceeding (Article 16).

They have requested that a Community Council or other legislative body intervene in an application before their board (Article 16).

They have acted towards others in a manner that is abusive, bullying, intimidating, discriminatory, harassing or derogatory (Article 17).

They have failed to observe City or their adjudicative board's policies and procedures (Article 18).

They have interfered with an investigation by the Integrity Commissioner or threatened or taken reprisal against someone who has made a complaint (Article 19).

Details

To see the full Articles, consult the Code of Conduct for Members of Adjudicative Boards. In the space below, please describe why you believe this adjudicative board member has contravened the Code of Conduct. In your description, please include details of:

- What specific actions or conduct, based on the boxes you checked above, you believe have broken the rules in the Code of Conduct.
- The places, dates and times of when these things took place.
- The names of persons who have been affected or have information about what took place.
- How you learned of these things.
- Anything else that you believe is relevant.

If you have documents or other materials that support your complaint, please refer to them in your description and attach them to this form when you submit it. If you require more space to describe what happened, please attach additional pages.
