

Apportionment of Property Taxes

Section 322 of the City of Toronto Act, 2006

An apportionment of property taxes is often required when outstanding taxes exist from a previously larger parcel of land that has been subdivided into smaller parcels arising from redevelopment and taxes need to be reassigned amongst the subdivided parcels.

As per Section 314(3) of the City of Toronto Act, 2006, property taxes are a lien against land. Once a proportional share of any outstanding tax is transferred from the original parcel to the newly created ones, the amount payable becomes the legal obligation of the registered owner of the newly created parcels of land.

How to apply to have a parcel of land apportioned:

- Original owner(s) or new owner(s) of the redeveloped land should complete the Apportionment of Property Taxes application form.
 - Incomplete applications cannot be processed and will be returned.
- Remit payment of the non-refundable filing fee. Please make cheque payable to the Treasurer, City of Toronto.
- Collect supporting documentation to support your application.
 - If you are the owner(s) of the original parcel of land and you made a payment of taxes for any of the years requiring apportionment, submit proof of payment (i.e. cancelled cheque, stamped bill, etc.).
 - You may be asked to provide:
 - Statement of Adjustment
 - Letter of Direction to instruct how to disburse tax payment(s) amongst the parcels of land.
- Send completed application, cheque and all other required documentation to:
City of Toronto, Revenue Services
Property Tax Billing, Apportionment
5100 Yonge St.
Toronto, ON. M2N 5V7.

Overview of the apportionment process:

The City will:

- review the application and supporting documentation and calculate pending tax amounts by dividing the taxes levied on the original parcel of land against the new parcels of land arising from the redevelopment. Assessed values are provided by the Municipal Property Assessment Corporation (MPAC) for this purpose.

- notify you at least 14 days prior to the General Government and Licensing Committee (GGLC) which will make a determination of the amount of property taxes payable. You will be notified by mail of the Committee's decision. Applicants may make a deputation before the Committee on the date of the hearing. Refer to the deputation process.
- If your hearing has not occurred before September 30 of the following year in which the application is made you may appeal directly to the Assessment Review Board (ARB). If you are not satisfied with the City's determination, you may file a notice of appeal within 35 days to the ARB. All decisions are final.

Please note: If any dispute between the previous and present landowners occur concerning distribution of property tax payments, please refer to your Agreement of Purchase and Sale for the property. Applicants are advised to seek legal counsel; the City cannot offer legal advice and will not engage in any form of advocacy or negotiation.
