Notice to Persons Writing to the Administrative Penalty Tribunal: The City of Toronto Act, 2006 and the City of Toronto Municipal Code authorize the City of Toronto to collect any personal information in your communication or presentation to City Council or its committees.

The Administrative Penalty Tribunal collects this information to enable it to make informed decisions on the relevant issue(s). If you are submitting letters, faxes, emails, presentations or other communications to the Administrative Penalty Tribunal, you should be aware that your name and the fact that you communicated with the Administrative Penalty Tribunal will become part of the public record and will appear on the Administrative Penalty Tribunals website. The Administrative Penalty Tribunal will also make your communication and any personal information in it – such as your postal address, telephone number or email address – available to the public, unless you expressly request the Administrative Penalty Tribunal to remove it.

This agenda and any supplementary materials submitted to the Administrative Penalty Tribunal can be found online at www.toronto.ca/apt. Visit the web page for access to all agendas, decisions and minutes of the Administrative Penalty Tribunal.

Aboriginal Land Acknowledgement

We acknowledge the land we are meeting on is the traditional territory of many nations including the Mississaugas of the Credit, the Anishnabeg, the Chippewa, the Haudenosaunee and the Wendat peoples and is now home to many diverse First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples. We also acknowledge that Toronto is covered by Treaty 13 with the Mississaugas of the Credit.

Delivered by Black staff member

The City of Toronto acknowledges all Treaty peoples –including those who came here as settlers –as migrants either in this generation or in generations past -and those of us who came here involuntarily, particularly those brought to these lands as a result of the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade and Slavery. We pay tribute to those ancestors of African origin and descent.
