Road Reconstruction at Wellington Street East and Scott Street

Contract: 20ECS-TI-20SP

Start Date: November 14, 2022 End Date: Week of December 5, 2022

Timelines are subject to change and future notice will be provided.*

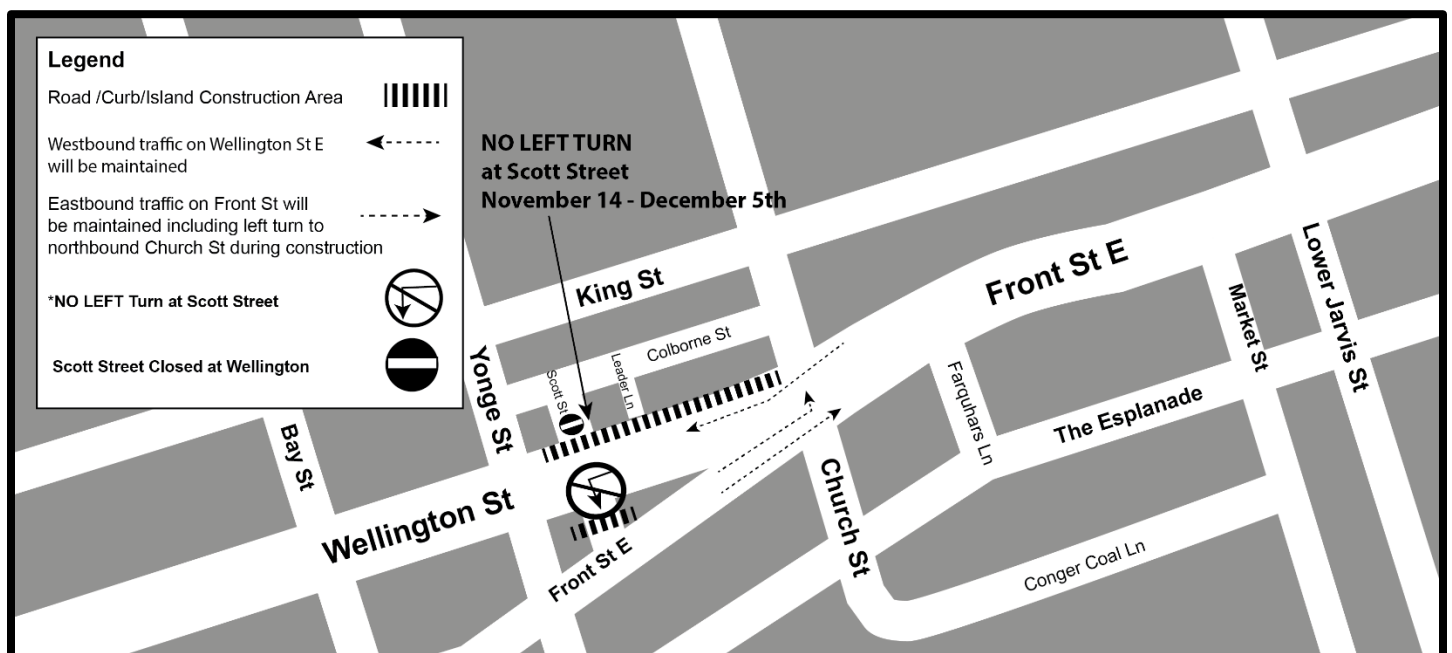

The City of Toronto will be reconstructing the sidewalk and the south side of the roadway at the intersection of Scott Street and Wellington Street East. To complete this work Scott Street will be closed at the south of Wellington Street East. Left-turns from westbound Wellington Street East to southbound Scott Street will be restricted from Monday November 14 to the week of December 5. North bound through traffic on Scott Street will also remain restricted during this time.

As construction continues on Wellington Street East our contractors have advised that all major construction works will be completed by the week of December 19th weather dependent. A revised construction schedule will be posted on the project website within the coming week, see construction progress below.

Construction Progress Front Street /Church Street

- All road /curb/sidewalk work has been completed on Front Street East with the exception of minor hand well work on the sidewalk at Market Street that will be completed by the end of November. During hand well work temporary lane restrictions will be required for short periods of time as work progresses.
- Work on Church Street/Wellington Street East at the east end of the Flatiron building remains under construction. The remaining road and sidewalk work on Wellington Street from Yonge Street to Leader Lane will continue until early to mid-December.
- Current construction on the south side of Wellington Street East and in front of the Flatiron building will continue until sidewalks have been fully installed – all existing pedestrian and lane restrictions will remain in place until early December.
