Meeting Background

The City of Toronto Transportation Services Division is working to make Construction Work Zones more accessible for pedestrians with disabilities and for cyclists. This Town Hall will provide an update on stakeholder consultations conducted in 2023, and what City staff are doing to implement stakeholder suggestions and to support positive change in accessible construction work zones over the coming years.

More Information

We encourage you to join ten minutes before 6:00 p.m. to allow time to log on. Upon entry to the Webinar, you will be given the option to provide your contact information. Your personal information will only be used to take attendance and to circulate the meeting materials after the session including the meeting minutes, presentation deck and updates related to this project.
