

Ending Operations Transition Plan

Overview

Operators that intend to end the operations of a multi-tenant house are required to submit this Ending Operations Transition Plan form to the Executive Director, Municipal Licensing and Standards for approval.

The form must be submitted at least 210 days in advance of ending the operations of the multi-tenant house.

In addition to providing information on the multi-tenant house, operators must fill out this form to provide:

- The date on which operators intend to end the operations;
- The operator's reasons for ending the operations of the multi-tenant house;
- A description of how the operator intends to use the building after ending operations;
- The date by which the operator will give each tenant written notice of the date that operations will end;
- A list of alternate accommodation that may be available to tenants; and
- A list of community organizations that may be affected by the end of operations.
