Host City planning requirements and hosting obligations for FWC26 are fully funded by intergovernmental funding contributions, an anticipated temporary increase to the Municipal Accommodation Tax in 2025 as approved by City Council (EX18.17), as well as additional City funding sources, without impact on the existing property tax base. Additional detail on the funding sources is outlined below:

- Intergovernmental Funding – Intergovernmental funding contributions will represent $201.3 million, or 53% of total estimated FWC26 costs.
 - Provincial Grant - In a letter dated December 2023, the Province of Ontario confirmed a conditional commitment of up to $97.0 million to support Toronto's efforts to host the FWC26. The funding to support the event is exclusively limited to investments that build lasting public infrastructure and benefits that will serve the community over the long-term following the completion of the games.
 - Federal Grant - In May 2024, $104.3 million in federal funding was announced for both operational and capital expenditures related to hosting FWC26.
- Reserve Funding – Capital and operating reserves and reserve funds were approved through prior year budgets as part of the City's commitment to match funding from other governments. This includes 2024 Municipal Accommodation Tax revenues that were projected to exceed the 2024 Operating Budget by $16.7 million by year-end, driven by increased demand and occupancy rates for hotels and short-term rentals. During the consideration of the 2024 9-month Operating Variance Report (EX19.13), City Council approved that this additional MAT revenue be contributed to the Major Special Event Reserve Fund and allocated to support FWC26.
- Municipal Accommodation Tax (MAT) - A temporary 14-month (June 1, 2025 – July 31, 2026) increase in the MAT, applied to hotels and short-term rentals, by 2.5% is projected to generate an additional $56.6 million which could directly support the delivery of the FWC26. This revenue is incremental to the anticipated $135.8 million in revenue under the existing base of 6% MAT rate over the same 14-month period.
- Commercial Rights Sales and Rental Fees - As a Host City, Toronto has implemented a robust commercial sales strategy, inclusive of selling commercial supporter and hospitality packages, providing a unique revenue generating opportunity that will engage key Toronto stakeholders.
- Value-In-Kind - $2.6 million in services provided in-kind.
- Other Funding - Further revenue opportunities include donations secured by the FWC26 Champions Table, a percentage of FWC26 Toronto merchandise sales, and FWC26 music royalties provided to Host Cities, new commercial sales opportunities specific to hospitality sales at the Stadium, and revenue opportunities specific to FIFA Fan Festival (e.g. premium ticketed events, vendor rental fees, etc.).

EXPERIENCES, CHALLENGES AND PRIORITIES

Our Experience and Success

The FWC26 services and successes in 2024 include:

- Established FWC26 Advisory Bodies to inform and guide legacy plans and initiatives (Sport, Arts & Culture, Human Rights and Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, Tourism and Economic Development, Environmental Sustainability, Community Benefits).
- Engaged a transportation consultant and developed initial Mobility Concept.
- Submitted a draft environmental plan to FIFA designed to align with and advance City Council approved strategies such as TransformTO.
- Completed design and procurement and commenced Phase I construction of the stadium capital project and completed Phase I training site construction at Centennial Park.
- Developed and activated a revenue strategy to contribute towards funding of the FWC26 in Toronto.
- Completed an initial concept of operations for FanFest.

Key Challenges and Risks

- Validation of FWC26 planning assumptions is on-going. A key component of this is determining City Divisions and Agencies' capacity to provide expertise and support in order to meet planning and delivery requirements.
- Complex coordination with numerous partners to deliver elements of the overall project poses an integration and delivery risk.

Priority Actions

- Continue FWC26 Toronto operational planning and project management by enlisting the support of internal and external expertise, engaging community partners, and maximizing opportunities for economic and cultural impact and legacy benefits.
- With the support of the FWC26 Advisory Bodies identify and advance legacy plans.
- Finalize the Mobility Plan including initiating procurements and finalizing agreements with partners to support implementation.
- Complete FIFA Fan Festival concepts, plans, and key procurements.
- Complete design and procurement and commence Phase II construction at the stadium and complete Phase II training site construction at Centennial Park.
- Complete detailed security planning and begin testing of key venues and features that will support the tournament in 2026.

KEY DRIVERS

Total Operating Budget for FWC26 is $236.410 million gross, predominantly arising from event safety and security, general operations, tournament operations and contingency and inflation impacts.

The total planning costs in the 2025 Operating Budget for FWC26 is $55.547 million gross. All 2025 operating expenses and revenues are budgeted within the FIFA Secretariat as part of the 2025 Staff Prepared Operating Budget for the City Manager's Office and are flowed to Divisions and Agencies through recoveries. Expenditures managed directly by FWC26 Secretariat total to $46.837 million.

Funding to support Host City planning requirements and hosting obligations included in the 2025 Budget is consistent with the FWC26 overall budget of $380 million approved by City Council.

EQUITY IMPACTS

The City of Toronto is committed to ensuring that the social and economic benefits from the FWC26 are equitably distributed. A Community Benefits Plan has been developed that aligns with the City's Community Benefits Framework and provides both a vision of commitment and road map to ensure workforce development and supply chain diversity opportunities generated through Toronto's hosting of the FWC26 reach Indigenous, Black, and other equity-deserving communities. This is anticipated to have a "low positive" equity impact.

A key component of the plan is the FWC26 Community Workforce Development Program that will focus on youth employment, specifically aiming to connect opportunities to youth from Indigenous, Black, and equity-deserving communities who may experience barriers to accessing the labour market. Program objectives will align with targeted actions in Council-adopted City of Toronto equity strategies such as the Reconciliation Action Plan, the Action Plan to Confront Anti-Black Racism, and SafeTO – Toronto's Community Safety and Wellbeing Plan.

Through the development of the Program, youth will gain access to training, educational pathways, and employment opportunities in the lead up to, during and after the FWC26 games. The program will focus on sectors such as hospitality, tourism, and event management, ensuring that youth gain skills that are geared towards career growth and are transferable across various industries. The Program will leverage the City's newly developed Community Benefits Workforce Intermediary approach to achieve the necessary coordination to ensure opportunities reach Indigenous, Black, and equity-deserving youth. The Program will collaborate closely with the City's Youth Development Unit in Social Development, Finance and Administration division, to leverage existing City of Toronto youth programs to target training and employment initiatives towards in-demand occupations. Programs include:

- Toronto Youth Job Corps: A full-time, paid employment preparation program for youth ages 15 to 30, especially those who are facing barriers accessing employment.
- Toronto Youth Partnerships and Employment (TYPE): A mobile intensive case management program supporting youth facing complex barriers to finding employment. The program offers life stabilization supports to youth ages 16 to 29. TYPE supports a wide range of youth including Indigenous, Black, newcomer youth, youth with disabilities, 2SLGBTQ+ youth, youth experiencing gender-based violence and youth involved with the justice system.

CAPITAL BUDGET AND PLAN

CAPITAL BUDGET AND PLAN OVERVIEW

Chart 1: 10-Year Capital Plan Overview

- The capital work required for hosting the FWC26 includes enhancements of City sports fields and facilities at Centennial Park for training purposes undertaken by Parks and Recreation as well as design and upgrades to the City-owned Toronto Stadium (BMO Field) through the Exhibition Place 10-Year Capital Plan and in collaboration with Maple Leaf Sports and Entertainment (MLSE).
- The enhancements at Centennial Park include one training pitch and one field house to be used as training facilities during the FWC26.
- In 2024, FIFA reduced training site requirements at Centennial Park from two training pitches and field houses down to one for the duration of the tournament in Toronto. This change results in net savings in capital expenses allocated to training sites plus additional savings to operations including safety and security budgets. Savings from the training site capital budget have been reallocated to other FWC26 budget requirements including the Toronto Stadium capital project.
- The upgrades to BMO Field include accessibility upgrades to washrooms, suite upgrades, dressing room upgrades, new permanent video boards, refurbished audio-visual systems, sports lighting replacement, turf upgrades, and temporary seating improvements to bring the stadium to FIFA operational standards.
- With the completion of pre-construction work at Toronto Stadium, rough order of magnitude pricing is surpassing initial estimates. The increase in capital costs for the stadium will be offset by the reallocation of savings from the training site capital project as noted above; and continued work with FIFA and all vendors to reduce scope and identify and implement cost saving measures wherever possible.
