Final Report

8. Was the CFIF Project able to provide any community benefits beyond waste reduction? Community benefits could include addressing food insecurity, advancing equity (e.g., providing senior-focused co-benefits such as age-friendly container design, accessible drop-off infrastructure or targeted outreach for older adults), delivering environmental outcomes, and/or supporting local economic development.

CFIF Project:

Budget

9. Please update the Project Budget, set out in Schedule C of the Circular Food Innovators Fund Agreement and as amended by written approval of the City, to reflect the actual amount of grant money spent in total in the “Reporting Costs” columns.

Please include the final Project Budget (as an Excel file) when submitting the Final Report. When submitting the Final Report, please also include digital copies of all receipts for any funding money spent, other than individual paystubs. Please number the receipts submitted and provide the corresponding receipt number for each expense claimed in the final Project Budget.

10. If claiming any Direct Staff Costs as an Eligible Cost for the CFIF Project, complete the attached Declaration and submit it with your report to the City certifying the information submitted to the City with regards to the amount of the Grant spent on direct staff costs.

Lessons Learned
