

Identification requirements for electors	City Clerk's Office – Toronto Elections
	Policy No.: POL-DVT-002

1. Policy

All electors (or their designated agents) seeking to have their name added to or removed from the voters' list or to have information relating to them on the voters' list be amended must present acceptable identification that verifies their name and qualifying address.

2. Application

This policy applies to Toronto municipal elections and by-elections.

This policy does not address identification requirements for obtaining a ballot; those are addressed in section 52 of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996 and Ontario Regulation 304/13, a regulation made under the Municipal Elections Act, 1996 (“O. Reg. 304/13”).

3. Authority/Legislative reference(s)

Section 12(3) of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996 authorizes the City Clerk to require a person to furnish proof that is satisfactory to the election official of the person's identity or qualifications.

4. Acceptable forms of identification

- (1) Where an elector is required to present identification to an election official for the purposes of this policy, the City Clerk has elected to use the identification described by O. Reg.304/13, set out in Appendix "A", as proof of the elector's identity and residence.
- (2) In a regular election or by-election for Council, where an elector is the spouse—as defined in section 3(1) of the City of Toronto Act, 2006—of a non-resident owner or tenant of land in the city of Toronto, that elector must provide:
 - (a) acceptable identification showing their name and address; and
 - (b) one of the following:
 - (i) a government issued document confirming the elector’s marital status to the non-resident owner or tenant of land in the city of Toronto; or

- (ii) in the event that the elector is a person living outside marriage in a conjugal relationship, then a government issued document proving that the elector and their spouse:
 - (a) have cohabited for at least one year;
 - (b) are together the parents of a child; or
 - (c) have together entered into a cohabitation agreement under Section 53 of the Family Law Act.
- (3) A Voter Identification Card is not considered identification at the voting place.

5. Exceptions

Persons with no permanent lodging place

- (1) If a person is unable to provide identification because they do not have a permanent lodging place, a declaration regarding the places to which they most frequently returned to eat or sleep during the preceding five weeks may serve as proof of residency and qualification, in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

Persons in institutions (long term care homes)

- (2) If a resident of an institution does not have identification as described in Appendix “A” readily available, then any document issued by the institution can be accepted as identification, including the patient’s chart or name on their bed, a wrist-bracelet and/or a list of residents provided by the institution. If an administrator of the institution is present, they can also confirm the identity of the resident.

Persons with a disability

- (3) If a person provides acceptable identification as per Appendix “A” but is unable to provide a signature because a disability prevents them from signing any document, they shall have their name added to or removed from the voters’ list or have information relating to them on the voters’ list amended.

Persons attending an educational institution

- (4) If a person lives in the city of Toronto in order to attend an educational institution and is scheduled to resume their studies in the upcoming academic term at an educational institution in Toronto, their qualifying Toronto address is considered to be either:
 - (a) their current Toronto residence; or
 - (b) if they are temporarily without a Toronto residence, where they most recently lived in Toronto during their previous academic term.

- (5) A person who meets the residence requirements in section 2 of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996 and provides acceptable identification as per Appendix “A” shall be permitted to have their name added to or removed from the voters' list or have information relating to them on the voters' list amended.
