Practice Direction: Late Filings - Number: 7

Effective Date: June 15, 2022

Direction:

The TLAB's Rules and the filing deadlines set out in Notices of Hearing are firm. However, materials are sometimes filed after a deadline set out in a Notice of Hearing has passed but before the start of the hearing.

The Late filing may compromise TLAB procedures of fairness and are to be discouraged, and will only be permitted under justifiable circumstances.

Any materials filed after the deadline set out in a Notice of Hearing must be served on all Parties and Participants. Any filing made after the deadline set out in a Notice of Hearing will be posted with all other evidentiary submissions but will be marked "LATE" by TLAB staff.

Applicant's Disclosure filed after the deadline set out in a Notice of Hearing may be admitted into the record with the consent of all Parties.

If the Party files the Applicant's Disclosure after the deadline set out in a Notice of Hearing without the consent of all Parties, the Party must advise the presiding Member at the start of the hearing and request that the late filed Applicant's Disclosure be admitted into the record.

In general, save for extenuating circumstances, minimal non-prejudicial delay or where consented to by other Parties, the late filed Applicant's Disclosure will not be admitted into the record.

The presiding Member has the discretion under the TLAB's Rules and under the Statutory Powers Procedure Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. S.22, to admit or refuse to admit late filed materials.

The presiding Member also has the discretion to order or to hear a motion to determine whether the Applicant's Disclosure that was filed after a deadline shall be admitted into the record.

A request to admit into the record materials that were filed after a deadline shall not be made outside the hearing. A Party or Participant can request the opportunity to file additional materials in response to materials that were filed after a deadline and have been admitted into the record by the presiding Member.
