

Let's learn about elections and vote for Tree of the Year!

The Toronto municipal election is October 26. Advance voting is October 6 to 11.

Kids can vote for Toronto's 2027 Tree of the Year at all 50 advance voting places on October 10 and 11.

Meet the Candidates

Basswood

My shade makes me the coolest tree at the park!

Paper Birch

My seeds fly far and wide to help me grow all over!

Red Oak

My acorns and leaves are tasty snacks for my animal friends!

Sugar Maple

My sweet sap and bright colours are world-famous!

White Pine

My needles provide shelter for my animal friends all year long!

toronto.ca/KidsVote

The Path to Kids Vote Weekend

Follow the path below to get started on your journey to becoming a lifelong voter!

Learn about the Election

Read more about each candidate running for Toronto's 2027 Tree of the Year by visiting toronto.ca/KidsVote.

Know Where to Vote

Beginning September 1, find your voting place on toronto.ca/KidsVote.

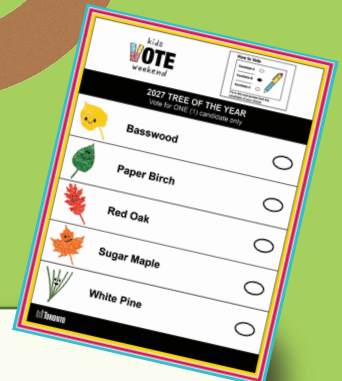

Go to Vote

Vote at your advance voting place on October 10 or 11 from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

What to Expect

When you arrive at the voting place, an election official will give you step by step instructions on how to complete your ballot.

Check the Results

After October 26, find out how the winning tree will be celebrated by visiting toronto.ca/KidsVote.

toronto.ca/KidsVote